*It starts with taking
And grows to giving —*

*In giving, we have to dedicate
a little part of ourselves;
And so we dedicate this little part of ourselves, ourselves at Longwood College exemplified in our 1973 VIRGINIAN, to a very special giving person —*

Dean Ruth B. Wilson.

*from fall to spring
we're ever
running
in
and
out and
never ending . . .*

*rotate, rotate, spin yourself
a freshman little sister*

*around
an agile sophomore clown*

a
proud
junior
helper
in a somber senior's gown

*sun is rising
gleaming
grinning
shining forth
a new
beginning;*

*sleeping, waking, walking, talking,
students all,
forever . . .*

*stick it out

it's only three more years,

*from then it's two
and quickly one . . .
and so begin the tears . . .*

Longwood College
Farmville, Virginia

we are one and we are many — a myriad of students expressing individual ideals, desires, ambitions . . .

No small group can publish a yearbook which will appeal to everyone — we are limited by our human shortcomings — our own outlook on life. We of the Virginian staff are trying to present only a small part of this year 1973 — as we ourselves lived and experienced it. We realize that each student has her own memories. We are attempting to provide only the basic framework. Supplement this as you will according to your own experiences and your own thoughts.

Chi Burn

"Chi is an organization comprised of individual members. But the individuals are not Chi! Chi is an ideal spirit which could never exist in or on one person.

The spirit is boundless selfless giving and sacrifice. To maintain this spirit is exemplary god-like virtues. We are not gods. We are very definitely human. And through this humanism, we are crippled by our desires, our actions, or emotions.

Look not to the people — look not to the shortcomings, the failures, the disgrace, the humanity! Reach for the ideal and forget the faces, the shadows soon to fade by a noonday sun.

We, the mortal members of Chi, challenge you, our fellow classmates and friends, to wipe from your memory the personification of the ideal. INSTEAD look to your own souls — you are the spirit, you are the glory, you are the Chi to whom we burn!"

sunrise,
sunset, with shadows
shadows on the wall

thoughts deep and trusting as twilight begins to fall . . .

W h i n g in an ever - widening scope
i r l i

*grasping
at fleeting moments
before they quickly fade*

drifting floating
in cycles of
reflections —

mirroring our hopes
and dreams*

misting eyes ease the pain for a wondering second

but we are quickly whisked to the $\begin{matrix} e & v & o \\ \swarrow & & \searrow \\ g & n & i \end{matrix}$ future —

f a l l i n g

we meet
each new s t e p

blue
jeans
hanging
clinging
hitching

lining our

halls
walls
falls

drifting into

tradition

in giving a part of ourselves we beg for an outstretched hand

to ease the uncertainty of every dawning day

*days at longwood spent for always joys and sorrows lost for no ways plodded and plowed,
trucked and bestruck
thru evening lingeringgggg lights and morning clutching clouds acting
relaxing
or just being ourselves*

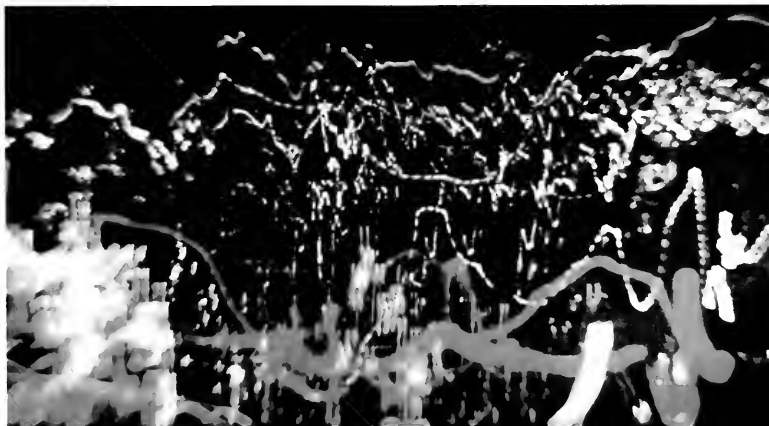

we hope to realize

the sincerity of dawn,

the mystery of twilight,

the ingenuity of
creation...*

*... ever growing
ever grasp the knack of knowing ...
when to begin or
where to end ...*

... ending ...*
